

Mentorship Schedule

Day one:

- a. Set up your workstations
- b. Trading Plan Lecture

Day Two:

- a. Review morning organization
- b. Gap Strategy Lecture – part one: Rating system & the eight entry types. Student will receive a copy of my gap strategy
- c. How to analyze and establish a market bias for the afternoon session
- d. The value of relative strength and relative Weakness
- e. How to structure your day

Day Three:

- a. Review morning organization – a second time
- b. How to establish morning bias and what to look for at the open
- c. Gap Strategy Lecture – part two: Must Have | Can't Have | Would Like To Have
- d. Team exercise: Analyze and establish market bias for the afternoon session
- e. How to create a daily/swing watchlist

Day Four:

- a. What to watch at the open
- b. Team exercise: establish morning bias for open
- c. Climactic Strategy Lecture – learn a complete system for trading climactics. Students will receive a copy of my climactic strategy
- d. How to scan and analyze sectors
- e. Matching strategies with entries on the 15-min chart
- f. Tracking tools to improve your trading

g. Reviewing trades and annotating charts

Day Five :

Matching gaps with entries on the 1-min, 2-min and 5-min charts

Team exercise: Ranking the gap watchlist

15-min Pristine Buy Setup and Pristine Sell Setup Strategy Lecture

Market timing and reversal times

The Psychology of Fear Lecture

Recap and final Q&A session

A Sample Trading Plan

Putting it together - How to become a confident, master trader